

Basic Adult Leader
Outdoor Orientation
November 13-14, 2021
Clinton Nature Preserve
8720 Ephesus Church Rd.

Every Cub Scout pack must have at least one leader who is Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO) trained in order to hold camping events. This is the latest version of the training, and packs should have more than one trained leader.

This expanded two-day, one-night course prepares leaders for many aspects of Cub Scout camping, including planning, programs, cooking, and camping techniques and equipment.

Cost: $20 payable during online registration
Three meals (Saturday lunch & supper and Sunday breakfast) and course materials are included in your registration fee.

Online registration is required:

www.atlantabsa.org/baloo

(we must have accurate numbers in advance to purchase enough food!)

Registration Deadline is Wednesday, November 10

Bring your tent, overnight camping gear, water bottle, mess kit, rain gear, and camp chair; be prepared for the outdoors!

Sign-in and gathering starts 8:30am Saturday morning.
The course runs from 9:00am Saturday to 12:00pm Sunday.
Participants must complete the online prerequisite modules prior to arriving Saturday morning (via my.scouting.org).
